"For I can do everything through Christ, who gives me strength"
(Philippians 4:13, NLT).

Scripture Focus: “For I can do everything through Christ, who gives me strength” (Philippians 4:13, NLT).

In this verse, Paul expresses that it is because of Christ he can do anything. Christ gives him the courage, strength, and insight to do what he needs to do for the Lord. Paul lives for Christ and gives Him praise. All of Paul’s victory is in Christ.

Paul serves as our example of how a relationship in Christ gives us the victory and strength in whatever trials or problems we are facing.

This course will propel students from average to excellence in every area of their lives, especially spiritual and emotional growth. Its central point focuses on developing the God-given potential of students from all age groups. By demonstrating how true victory originates with a personal relationship with Jesus Christ, this curriculum will be instrumental in encouraging believers to achieve unlimited accomplishments with the help of the Holy Spirit.

UMI’s “I’ve Got This! With Jesus” VBS program shares how “Victory – Strength – Prayer – Praise” in Christ are blessings and opportunities for families, individuals, churches, and communities to declare who Jesus is in their lives. “I’ve Got This! With Jesus” serves as a model of encouragement we can follow to highlight practical strength builders we can use every day!

Give youth in your program
a Bible they can relate to this year!

Their own personal Bible designed especially for children of color. With full-color illustrations, engaging book introductions, prayer guides and much more, kids will learn and grow in the faith as they see themselves in the Scripture.

Kim McWhorter, VBS Director

"Wow! I didn't expect the Children of Color Holy Bible to have such a big impact on the program. So many students signed up for Sunday School. They love the pictures inside. Every Sunday some child or some child's mom is thanking me for giving their child a Bible and great VBS memories. Thanks for creating such a powerful resource we can give away!"

The Children of Color Holy Bible includes:

- 56 illustrations of Bible characters who are people of color
- Authentic King James Version (KJV) text
- Unique book introductions explain what each book is about
- Words of Christ in red
- Promises from God for children of color
- "From God" and "To God" prayers
- What every child of color should know about Jesus
- Hymns and songs
- Quotes from notable African Americans
- And much more!
